Saint George

The son of a Roman officer, George grew up in a Christian family in Palestine and became a favored military commander and soldier of Emperor Diocletian. The emperor began a persecution, requiring his soldiers to arrest Christians. George refused to obey. He knew what would happen to him, and so gave away his belongings. Diocletian tried to seduce him to convert and offered money and slaves. In the end, still defiant to the emperor and faithful to God, George was tortured and put to death in 303. He is the patron of soldiers and is revered by both Muslims and Christians. According to legend, a dragon guarded a town's water supply and killed its people, and George slayed the dragon with a sword.

Saint George, I fervently implore you to help me by your powerful intercession to overcome the temptations that surround me, and to bear bravely the trials that oppress me, so that I may patiently carry the cross which is placed upon me. Let neither distress nor difficulties separate me from the love of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.
