Saint John Henry Newman

St. John Henry Newman was an English theologian and a leader of the Oxford Movement (restoration of Catholic doctrines and liturgical practices that were abandoned during the English Protestant Reformation). Newman converted to the Catholic faith at age 44. He became a priest in 1846 and was awarded the degree of Doctor of Divinity by Pope Pius IX. He is renowned for his work as a religious leader and a rector of the Catholic University of Ireland. Newman was made cardinal in 1879. In honor of his influence and inspired by Newman's writings, Newman Societies have been established at colleges in England and the United States. The first Newman Center was established in 1893 at the University of Pennsylvania. On September 19, 2010 Pope Benedict beatified Newman. He was canonized by Pope Francis on October 13, 2019. His feast day is October 9th.

Have a safe and blessed weekend.

*May the Lord support us all the day long, Till the shades lengthen and the evening comes,
and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done.
Then in his mercy may he grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at last.
Amen*
