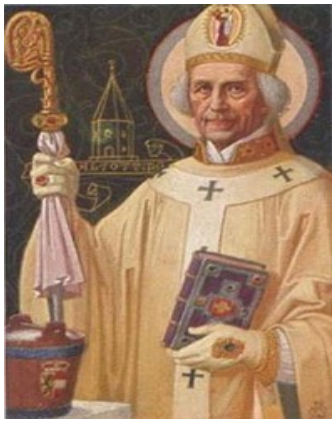
St. Rupert



Bishop and missionary, also listed as Robert of Hrodbert. A member of a noble Frankish family, he was appointed bishop of Worms, Germany, and then dedicated himself to spreading the faith among the Germans. With the patronage of Duke Thedo of Bavaria, he took over the deserted town of luvavum about 697, which was renamed Salzburg, Austria. Rupert founded a church, a monastery, and a school; brought in groups of missionaries; and established a nunnery at Nonnberg with his sister, Eerentrudis, serving as the first abbess. He died at Salzburg and is venerated as the first archbishop of this major diocese in the West. Rupert is revered as the Apostle of Bavaria and Austria.

"To love God you need three hearts in one; a heart of fire for Him, a heart of flesh for your neighbor and a heart of bronze for yourself."
-St. Joseph Labre

Have a safe and blessed Easter break.

Lord, purify our desires. Fill our souls with the Bread of Life, that we may never desire anything contrary to Your Will, but may find strength and rest in You. Amen.
